

CRUS Doctoral Programme - Language & Cognition

Module: Pragmatics in communication disorders

First day: Pragmatic impairments in developmental communication disorders

Speakers: Andrea Dohmen, Erich Hartmann, Christoph Michael Müller

THURSDAY 20 November 2014
9h-9h15	E. Hartmann JM. Annoni	Welcome
9h15-9h45	E. Hartmann	Introduction to pragmatic impairments in developmental communication
9h45-10h30	A. Dohmen	The broad set of behaviours that can be called pragmatic and characteristic profiles of communicative deficits in children with different clinical diagnoses
10h30-11h	Coffee Break
11h-11h45	A. Dohmen	From assessment to intervention planning for children with communicative deficits
11h45-12h30	C.M. Müller	Explaining pragmatic impairments in Autism: What can Theory of Weak Central Coherence
12h30-14h15	Lunch
14h15-15h	A. Dohmen	Language and communication trajectories of children with specific language delay (late talkers)
15h-15h45	E. Hartmann	Pragmatic interventions: State of the art, research perspectives, challenges
15h45-16h15	Coffee Break
16h15-17h30	E. Hartmann A. Dohmen	Presentations and discussions of doctoral research projects
Workshop Dinner

Second day: Pragmatic impairments in acquired communication disorders

Speakers: Jean-Marie Annoni, Françoise Colombo, Marion Fossard, René Müri, M. Sandoz, A. Sturm

FRIDAY 21 November 2014
9h-9h15	JM. Annoni et al.	Welcome and introduction
9h15-10h	JM. Annoni A. Sturm	Neural bases of pragmatics
10h-10h45	JM. Annoni	Pragmatic impairment in neurological disorders
10h45-11h15	Coffee Break
11h15-12h	R. Müri	Impairment of non-verbal communication
12h- 14h	Lunch
14h-14h45	F. Colombo	How to test pragmatics in clinical setting?
14h45-15h25	JM. Annoni A. Sturm	The Theory of Mind : theory and testing
15h25-15h55	Coffee Break
15h55-16h30	M. Fossard M. Sandoz	ToM and discourse in aging and Alzheimer type dementia
16h30-17h	S. Dieguez	Literary pragmatics: how writers exploit reader's brains
Farewell		